[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 19.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

French Affairs.

VERSAILLES, July 18.—The municipal election will probably be favorable to the Government. It is said Thiers and Gambetta are negotiating for the establishment of a moderate Republic.

PARIS, July 18.—It is confirmed that the Archbishop of Tours succeeds the Archbishop of Paris.

Owing to technicalities the first half milliard of indemnity was unpaid.

Riot in Vienna.

LONDON, July 18.—It is reported that in the riot at Vienna, on Sunday, the Socialists attacked the Ultramontanes, and the police were powerless. The military was used for their suppression.

Other European News.

DRESDEN, July 17.—The Emperor of Russia (Germany?) sent a flattering telegram to the Crown Prince of Saxony, conferring on him the honorary title of Field Marshal.

Census of Great Britain.

LONDON, July 18.—The census taken at midnight on Sunday, April 3d, 1871, throughout Britain, has just been officially announced. The entire population of England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, and the Isle of Man, including the army, navy and merchant marine abroad, is: males, 15,540,271; females, 16,267,837. Total, 31,609,910. Preponderance of females over males, 718,568.

A telegram from Hong Kong yesterday, reports a typhoon.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Miscellaneous News.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The latest revised tables at the census office show the following aggregate of population of all the States and organized Territories: Whites, 33,581,680, Colored, 4,879,323, Indians, 20,740, Japanese, 6,000, Chinese, 63,196. Total, 38,510,037.

It is understood that certain questions in regard to the application of McGarrahan, for restoration to the records of the Interior Department, will be offered for decision.

John A. Armstrong has been appointed Agent for the Indians in New Mexico, at Alberquerque Agency; Henry A. Eastman, Register of the Land Office, at Prescott, Arizona, and N. Latham of Arizona, Commissioner to the International Exhibition.

Gen. A. Parker, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has resigned. His reasons given in a letter to the President, dated June 24th, are that the recent legislation of Congress in relation to Indian affairs, has divested the office of importance by creating Commissioner McLeod and a Board of Indian Commissioners. The President's acceptance of the resignation, dated July 13th, compliments Parker for the ability and integrity with which he discharged all duties.

Subscriptions to the new loan to date are sixty-six millions. It is stated that Boutwell paid more for bonds on Thursday than par value in gold and interest.

Revenue Officials Discharged from Service.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is rapidly reducing the number of assistant assessors and other subordinate revenue officials in different States.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—The grand jury found indictments against Hiram G. Ramsdell and S. White, of the New York Tribune, and Chas. A. Tinker and Jos. A. Kirby, of the Western Union Telegraph office, for wilfully and unlawfully refusing to testify on certain points before the Senate Committee concerning the premature publication of the Washington Treaty. This refusal is declared to be against the form of statutes in such cases made and provided.

EASTERN STATES.

New York News.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Treasury officials say Secretary Boutwell will suspend further purchase of bonds should they remain above par in gold.

Thomas McClarry, wounded on the 12th inst. died this morning. 25 wounded are still at Bellevue and Mount Lion Hospitals, 5 of whom have died.

Procession in New York.

NEW YORK, July 18.—In the Board of Police to-day Commissioner M. A. Mortimer offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The occupation of thoroughfares by parades and processions has grown to be an evil of such magnitude as requires police regulation, and that such occupation, which is not a right but only a toleration, has become obnoxious and dangerous; therefore

Resolved, That excepting parades of the National Guards and funeral processions, no processions of any kind will be permitted to occupy the streets of New York without permission of the police, in which event the Superintendent shall give an escort and proper protection.

Commissioner Barr offered a resolution for obtaining a legal opinion of the best method of dealing with street processions, which was referred to a committee composed of Messrs. Bosworth and Barr. Mayor Hall, in seconding Barr's resolution, denied the lawful right of any association except the military, to occupy streets, and said the authorities were perfectly justified in forbidding processions. That it was done in the recent instance for the first time, simply shows that the question was never before presented for decision. Never before did any procession engender circumstances threatening a breach of the peace.

Outrages in North Carolina.

WILMINGTON, July 18.—In Robinson county this morning, Lowry and his band of negro outlaws, waylaid and killed Daniel McLean, a prominent citizen, and Hugh McLean, his brother, only thirteen years old. They also wounded Archibald McCallum. These parties were riding along the public road in a buggy and were fired on from the woods. A state of terror exists among the women and children in that county. The Sheriff has a posse of 150 men in the field. All efforts thus far for the capture of the outlaws are fruitless.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—The Ajax sails for New Zealand to-morrow.

The Democrats are making progress toward a settlement of their troubles. After the County Committee had appointed a conference committee, Senator Casserly and others visited the Freidlander Wing Committee who had agreed upon an address to the party and ordered primaries for the 27th inst. Casserly addressed the committee at length, and the result was the appointment of a committee to confer with both the others. They then adjourned to this evening. The committees of conference meet at 4 P. M. to-day, and it is believed the troubles will then all be settled.

In the case of the death of John J. Hughes, the Coroner's jury found that he came to his death by a wound in the brain, given by a knife in the hands of Jas. McLaughlin, who is now charged with murder and in custody.

Passed West from Ogden to day—Gov. Trutch and wife, Miss Pinder and Chas. Good, Victoria, B. C.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—The U. S. Marine Hospital, which since the abandonment of the building on Rincon point has been at the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum, near Mission Dolores, has been removed to the corner of 24th and Valencia streets. There are 52 patients.

Many San Franciscans have gone to Oakland to attend the commencement exercises of the State University.

The Postmaster at San Francisco has adopted a new stamp which shows the hour as well as the day on which a letter has been deposited in the office.

The case of Lavino, a pawnbroker, arrested for obtaining money under false pretences by selling what is termed a 'filled cased gold' watch to a countryman for a gold one attracts much attention. It appears from the testimony that the watch cases are framed by swedging two thin plates of gold on the outside of a thick plate of base metal, and no one can tell the difference from a genuine gold watch without cutting through the gold plates with a file and testing with acid. These watches have been extensively dealt in by pawnbrokers, who get them off on ignorant purchasers as genuine gold watches. In this case it was proven that the defendant purchased filled gold, but gave a bill of sale as gold watch. Judge Sawyer sent Lavino to the County Court for trial. Many pawnbrokers have laid themselves liable to the same penalty.

Mrs. Higbee, the friend of Mrs. Fair, who alleges she was knocked down by an unknown man Monday night, is said to be quite ill. The police have satisfied themselves as to the merits of the case.

OREGON.

City government at Salem costs at the rate of $30,000 a year.

Commencement Exercises at Wallamet University are now in progress.

The water company at Salem are now laying their pipes through the streets.

The name of the postoffice at Ashland Mills in Jackson county has been changed to Ashland.

A band of 400 Cayuse horses, purchased from the Umatilla Indians, was driven through Baker county last week.

Eight or ten townships in the Willow creek country, Baker county, are about to be surveyed and thrown open for settlement.

The editor of the Statesman, who has been summering at the mouth of the Columbia, writes a glowing account of his experiences there, and thinks it is just the place to go to.

The Baker county Democrat says that experience in Eastern Oregon shows that sage brush land, when irrigated, always produces good crops of hay, grain and garden vegetables.

Superintendent Meacham has gone to the Umatilla Reservation to confer with the Indians about vacating the reservation lands. They are understood to be averse to the proposition, and probably will not consent.

The Bedrock Democrat says that the best business in Union and Baker counties, affording the quickest and largest returns, is sheep husbandry. It adds: If there is any other business, anywhere, that will yield as large profits, we would like to know it. Merchandising will not do it; raising grain won't do it; raising cattle and horses will not do it; nor will mining one time in a thousand.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: The Beacon thinks that Kalama is destined to supersede Portland and become the trading mart of the north-west coast. We have heard this talk of snuffing out Portland for the last dozen years, and yet Portland has continued to grow, whilst many of her rivals have dwindled away to the condition of "deserted villages." We wish the Beacon editor every success in building up his town, but if he bases his hopes on the ruin of Portland, then we fear that he leans on a broken reed.

THE TERRITORIES.

E. B. Whitman has been elected Mayor of Walla Walla.

In the once famous Florence mines there are now about 110 white and 150 Chinese miners.

Twenty five miles of road-bed from Kalama north will be ready for track-laying by the 1st September.

Contractor Montgomery on the N. P. R. R. is paying for common labor $2 25 a day (greenbacks) out of which $5 a week is charged for board.

The papers at Walla Walla say that certain hotels there are troubled with wingless mosquitoes. Rude and growling travelers call them bed-bugs.

Arrangements are making for holding an agricultural fair at Walla Walla. The principal premiums are, of course, for horse-racing and equestrianship.

It is proposed to build another Methodist Church at Kalama to replace the one destroyed by fire. The new building will be larger and much more stylish than the former.

The Walla Walla Statesman says that a man named Reese, living on the Pataha, was accidentally shot with a rifle a few days since in the hands of a neighbor. The ball passed through both thighs, making a frightful wound.

S. E. Barr writes from "Barrie," Pacific county, W. T., to give notice to those intending to settle on Nasell river in that county that he has received information that "parties in Portland are going to survey all the land in that section, so as to enter it. Those who want homesteads had better be up and doing."

The Olympia Tribune says: "Tourists and settlers are coming to the country this season in great numbers. They find all the natural beauties they expected. They find, also, no demand for labor, men out of employment, improvements suspended, capital idle, people dissatisfied, land locked up from purchasers, everything uncertain." The blame for this state of affairs is thrown on the N. P. R. R. Co. for not locating the "terminus!" Really this thing is supremely ridiculous.

CURRENT NOTES.

Kentucky gets $525,000 from the Federal Treasury in satisfaction of her claim for the expense of the Kentucky Home Guard. Inasmuch as that State was only about one-fifth loyal, she can't complain of the manner in which her fractional loyalty has been recognized.

The recent vote in Maine on the question of selling malt liquors, showed the following result: Total number of cities and towns, 540; prohibiting the sale—vote "no," 61; not voting, 242; by tie vote, 2. Total towns where ale is prohibited, 305; places where the sale is permitted by vote "aye," 30; not heard from, 5.

The greatest mile time, and the greatest race ever run on this continent, was made a few days ago at Saratoga. The race was 2¼ miles, twelve entries. Longfellow was the winner, Kingfisher the second. Longfellow made the first mile in 1:40; Kingfisher 1:41. The time of the race was 4:02¾, and the average per mile was a very small fraction below 1:48.

It is said there is about $20,000,000 less gold now in the United States than there was a year ago; and a New York paper says this is about the amount which the American tourists to Europe have taken away this season. Last year the great war in France swept all these migratory American birds of fine feather and rapid wing home, and kept them here for nearly twelve months. This year peace in Europe invites them over again, and they have accepted the invitation by thousands, each tourist going, of course, with his pockets well lined with gold. This is believed to be the principal cause of the rise in gold in New York.

Surely the art of putting things is not a lost art, when one can read in the New Orleans Picayune such a sentence as this, alluding to the accession of A. H. Stephens to the editorial chair: "The flutter in the Democratic ranks generally takes the shape of complimentary deprecation, through which peers the suspicion of an unwritten curse upon the frankness and clearness with which Mr. Stephens enunciates doctrines of which the party was once boastfully proud."

Andy Johnson has given a characteristic opinion of the new departure. He says: "I am not going to say, and no other Democrat should say, that he accepts the reconstruction measures and amendments as finalities. For us to say that we will forever close our lips against these iniquities is d—d nonsense."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Case of Rochefort.

PARIS, July 19.—The indictment upon which Rochefort is to be tried, contains four counts, viz:

First—Provocation to hatred among citizens.

Second—Incitement to civil war and pillage.

Third—Publication of false news and spurious dispatches, knowing them to be false, and, consequently, counterfeiting public and private writings.

Fourth—Complicity in murder by instigating the arrest and execution of hostages.

Friends of the ex-Minister of National Defense deny the story that he has been put out. Regarding his prostration and weakness, they assert that he is nowise cast down, but it must be admitted that his position, with such a list of charges and members of court martial for his judges is a sufficiently serious one.

News from Rome.

LONDON, July 19.—On the 29th ult., at Rome, the Pope held a consistory, at which he priorised the Bishops of Jippo in Hungary, of Oporto in Portugal, and of St. Jago in Cape de Verdes, and afterward published nominations made since last month, namely: The Patriarch of Lisbon and Bishop of Braganza, and the Bishop of Macanda, Portugal, and the Bishops of Meso and Elinse in Partitus.

He then addressed the sacred college, and announced his decision in these words: We are in the hands of Divine Providence. Have nothing to expect from human aid. Man has abandoned us. Why should we dissemble? It is better I should tell you that Kings and Governments, forgetting their promises, leave us to our fate. They have addressed us in fine phrases. They sent us the warmest congratulations on the day of our jubilee, but they are far from taking steps in support of their messages. We can hope for no help from any quarter. King Victor Emanuel will be here in a few days, and will be attended by Ministers of Catholic States. We have done all that was in our power, but our efforts have failed. All is lost. You will tell me, perhaps, that we still have hope in France, but France can do nothing. She is going through a frightful crisis which may be succeeded by others yet more dreadful. I repeat it, all is lost and only a miracle can save us. Turn, then, to the Almighty, and seek his interposition.

Gambetta's Administration.

PARIS, July 19.—Gambetta was before the Committee of Investigation appointed by the Assembly to inquire into the doings of the Government of national defence. His testimony to-day was principally with regard to raising troops during his administration.

Dutch Affairs.

THE HAGUE, July 19.—The Chamber, by a vote of 16 to 15, postpones the Queva cession question.

The Spanish Cortes is considering the trial of press offences by jury.

EASTERN STATES.

Maryland Politics.

BALTIMORE, July 19.—The Democratic State Convention met at 10 o'clock this forenoon at the new Assembly rooms. Hon. William Pinkney White of this city, was nominated for Governor on the first ballot. Hon. A. K. Sylvester of Washington county, was nominated for Attorney-General.

The Water Question.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Sir:—Since the people of Portland are so "exercised" about the water question, and so many suggestions are made upon the subject, permit me, upon the principle of "many men, many minds," to make a suggestion. That all should enjoy the luxury so humorously described by the Indianapolis report copied in your issue of the 19th inst. it is necessary that water should be cheap.

In reading your report of the Tualatin-Oswego Canal, it occurred to me that a part of those 833 horse power, reported as available, might be secured by the city of Portland, and applied to pumping from wells on the Holly system, instead of using steam power. The water could be elevated from wells to a sufficient elevation, then carried on an easy grade along the mountain side to the points of delivery for city use. As there need be no pressure wooden flumes inclosed completely would be all that would be required from the pump discharge to the furthest limits of the city. By this method the use and great cost of steam engines would be forever obviated, making a saving of millions to the city in a few years, besides greatly reducing the prime cost.

A 25 foot head, discharging 1,738 cubic feet of water per minute upon a well constructed turbine wheel of 30 inches, will give 72 horse power, and as the fall increases so does the power increase with a given quantity of water. Thus: a fall of 40 feet with a discharge of 1,648 cubic feet upon a 26 inch wheel, will give a power equal to a steam engine of 110 horse power. The present water works are driven by a 40 horse power engine. The writer has had some experience in the water question in mines, mills and ditches, and if you think these suggestions merit the attention of your citizens at this particular crisis in the cry for "water," they are at your service. New York Merchants on Mayor Hall.

Our dispatches last week stated that a meeting of New York merchants had condemned Mayor Hall for prohibiting the Orange procession. Following are the resolutions passed at the meeting. That one in which it is declared that "equal rights and privileges must and shall be granted to all foreigners alike, without regard to their voting power," is much to the point:

At an adjourned meeting of the merchants this evening (12th) at the Produce Exchange, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we enter our solemn protest against the arbitrary assumption of power, on the part of the Mayor and Superintendent of Police in discriminating between the rights of one religious or political organization to the prejudice of another.

Resolved, That we utterly repudiate the sophistry and superficial pleadings published in said order for its justification, as unworthy the source from whence it emanated, as in direct opposition to the great American doctrine of liberty to all.

Resolved, That we care nothing for religious or political prejudices that may underlie the differences among our foreign-born citizens, but we deprecate any restriction of the rights of one class more than another, and equal rights and privileges must and shall be granted to all foreigners alike, without regard to their voting power.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are due and hereby given to Governor Hoffman for the prompt manner in which he has relieved the Empire City from the odium of being governed by the rabble.

The Savannah News says: "If the World is really the leader of the so-called Democratic 'new departure,' it is fatally injuring its cause. Its flippant mockery over the grave of the 'Lost Cause' (the cause of the Constitution and the rights of the States) and its coarse abuse of Jefferson Davis will find no sympathy at the South. The 'Lost Cause' is a precious memory with the Democrats of the South, and the misfortunes of Mr. Davis are the misfortunes of his people. The 'new-departure' men may be sure of that."

Letter from one of the "Ignoble Blood."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR:—An editorial in the Herald of July 18th commenting on the sound and logical reasoning of the OREGONIAN'S review of the oration delivered by Mr. S. C. Simpson at Corvallis, July 4th, shows that the self-assumed Solon of the Herald does not understand the first principles of a republican form of government. I do not propose to examine the vain and futile effort of the Herald to refute the argument of the OREGONIAN on the security of government, as your reply in to-day's issue on the subject shows that the ground taken by the Herald is untenable. I desire to enlighten him on a fact of which he seems ignorant. He should know that the base, ignoble blood (as he terms it) of the negro was shed as freely for the preservation of this Government as the best (so-called) Caucasian blood; and the masses of this great people, recognizing the fact, determined that the principle that all men are equal should be carried out in fact as well as in theory. Hence the ratification by a majority of the States of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution.

And now let me tender a little advice to the Herald (humble though it may be). In your "new departure" bring what remnants of truth there may be scattered around the old hulk (by way of ballast) and you will be more readily received in the ranks of the great Republican party than by such a false and shallow argument as your diatribe of the 18th on the inequality of blood. That question lies buried among the dead issues which you so graciously swallowed, and which for so doing your editorial brethren of the Bed Rock stamp are giving you such a warning. But don't heed them; continue to "depart" until you reach the broad and firm ground now occupied by the party of liberty and justice to all. G. P. R.

(One of the "Ignoble Blood.")

P. S.—While en route try and ascertain of what color of blood was Adam.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The scale of freight charges from Victoria to Puget Sound ports is now quite reasonable.

The bank of British Columbia at Victoria is importing considerable quantities of gold coin.

The steamer George S. Wright has been towed into Victoria for repairs. Her propeller and shaft require surgical attention.

One hundred and fifty men applied to go with the railroad surveyors, only a few of whom were wanted. Wages paid are $45 per month.

At Victoria, people think that because a party of Surveyors have arrived they are going to have a railroad built to Canada. They will be wiser in a few years.

The proposed celebration for the 20th has fizzled. This is the day for the union of British Columbia with Canada, but no joy is expressed over the marriage.

The Wisdom of Written Facts.

"When a person," says the Herald, "gets to be wise above what is written, it is high time that he should receive the congratulation of his friends." With this remark that paper begins an examination of some observations made by us in relation to the anarchical resolutions of '98, of which Jefferson was the author. It says that Madison was the author of the Virginia resolutions, which were almost identical with those of the Kentucky Legislature drafted by Jefferson; and as Madison had a leading part in making the Constitution it follows that those resolutions could have contained no attack upon it.

This is sheer ignorance. Jefferson with his own hand wrote the Kentucky resolutions, and he incited Madison to prepare and introduce those of Virginia. Jefferson was essentially the father of both. Without him neither set of the anarchical resolutions would ever have been thought of. Madison was almost as a piece of putty in the hands of Jefferson. The latter was an indefatigable prompter, and was constantly inciting his lieutenants to attacks on the administrations of Washington and of Adams, and on the Constitution itself. His ascendancy over Madison was such, that he induced him to do an act which the latter up to the day of his death was apologizing for, trying to explain away and to render harmless. But after all, the resolutions which Madison introduced in the Virginia Legislature did not go to the extent of those written by Jefferson for the Legislature of Kentucky. They stopped short of some of the most anarchical doctrines which Jefferson had enunciated. Still they were objectionable, and were denounced by Washington as dangerous to the country.

That Madison, who had borne a prominent part in creating the Constitution, fell under the influence of Jefferson, the evil genius of American politics, and the man to whom all our national difficulties are directly traceable, is a fact to be regretted; and his subsequent utterances in which he tried to explain away the objectionable parts of the resolutions he had introduced in the Virginia Legislature, shows that he regretted it himself. But although Madison's course in this matter was unworthy of him, history relates a connected and candid story about the whole affair, and it cannot be blinked out of sight. And if the Herald were wise as to what is written, it would be able to see through this whole subject and obtain more than the merely superficial view that it now has of it.

The pertinacity with which that paper adheres to the doctrines that produced secession and rebellion, shows that it has not found in the "new departure" the political regeneration which its party needs.

Damaging Charges.

The pretense of Gov. Hoffman that he was not apprised of the actual state of affairs in New York City until just before the riot commenced, is denounced by several New York papers as absurd and false. This must have suggested itself to every reader here, since our telegraphic dispatches had given full information about it a full week before. New York papers also assert that Hoffman was in the city at least two days before the riot, that he was consulted by Mayor Hall and Superintendent Kelso and that the order to prohibit the Orangemen's procession was the result of the conference, with full and complete knowledge of all the facts before him. After the Mayor had repeatedly assured the Orangemen that they should be protected, Kelso, with the advice and consent of both the Governor and Mayor, assured the Catholics that the Orangemen should be suppressed. It was not until public feeling had become irresistible, and twenty-four hours after Governor Randolph had issued his proclamation, and not until Tuesday at midnight (the riot occurred the following day), that Hoffman took a decided stand. It is generally believed that it was the official assurance to the rioters that they should have their own way that done the mischief. It is asserted that the Hibernians had been drilling for the riot for two weeks, with full knowledge on the part of the authorities of what they were doing. The various societies and organizations which proposed to prevent the Orange demonstration were about 20,000 strong, and were outspoken in their threats as were the secessionists while planting their batteries under Sumter. The showing made against Gov. Hoffman as well as against Mayor Hall, is of a most damaging character. Both truckled to the mob, but the Governor was forced by public opinion to do his duty at the last hour.

Census of Great Britain.

We have in the telegraphic dispatches a statement of the population of Great Britain, as shown by the census just taken. Comparing the figures with the population ten years ago we find that the increase in that period has been 2,537,895. Most of this has been in England and Wales. Scotland has gained 296,319 in ten years, and Ireland has lost 396,208 in the same length of time. Emigration from the Irish ports in ten years has reached 819,903. English journals recently received give many minor statistics of the census. The invariable lesson of all the census taken in recent times, that the tendency of population is to the large cities, is here proved again. London alone has gained one-sixth of the increase for the whole United Kingdom. In Scotland more than sixty per cent. of the increase is in the cities. It is proven by incontestible evidence that the great cities can maintain their population only by being fed by steady streams of people flowing from the rural districts. Hence it is remarked that the rural districts are the cradles, and the cities the graves, of the human race. Census returns not only of Great Britain, but of all civilized countries, including our own, prove, therefore, that the flow of population is from the nurseries of the race to vortices where it is swallowed up and entombed.

Miller, the Oregon poet, is to have a New York publisher. His "Songs of the Sierras," which have made so great a sensation in London, are to be issued in New York by Roberts Brothers.

The party of journalists announced to be on the way to this coast by the route of the N. P. R. are not coming. They left Erie, P., on the 14th inst. for Chicago, whence they were to go over the completed portion of the N. P. R. R. to Red river, and down Red river by steamer to Fort Garry and Lake Winnepeg, in British America, returning via St. Paul and the rail route.

The sugar crop of Louisiana last year, was 141,881 hogsheads against 87,000 hogsheads in 1869—an increase of 57,791 hogsheads or over 65 per cent. The yield of molasses was 10,281,419 gallons, against 5,724,256 in 1866, an increase of nearly 100 per cent.

San Francisco Politics.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—James K. Sheffield, formerly postmaster at Warrenton, Florida, was found dead on the floor of the Barry House, 18 First street, this morning. His teeth were broken out, evidently by a blow, and by his side was a piece of paper on which was written: "I was knocked down in the street. Whoever waylaid me, I forgive him."

It is understood that the Democratic Committee's conference have decided on a compromise which heals all divisions, and the three divisions will unite in ordering primaries.

Judge Lake having to-day overruled the demurrer of defendant's DeYoung of the Chronicle, indicted for libel on R. H. Linton, Charles DeYoung surrendered himself into custody and immediately made application to Judge Wallace of the Supreme Court, for habeas corpus. Judge Wallace expressed the opinion that Judge Lake might have erred in refusing to allow the Grand Jury brought into court to be challenged, but took the application for habeas corpus under advisement for a day or two. As the case is one of misdemeanor, in which the municipal court has final jurisdiction, the case cannot be carried up on appeal to the Supreme Court.

I am positively assured by officers of the Central Pacific company that the construction of the air line railroad from San Francisco to Red Bluffs, on the west side of the Sacramento river, already commenced, will positively be carried out without interruption, and that portion between Sacramento and Red Bluff completed by the 1st of January, 1872. The rails for that part of the road are already in California. The rumored purchase of the California Pacific will not interfere with this, whether correct or not.

Farren, who shot Weimer of Vallejo, at the Christening party, was held for trial for assault to murder; bail $5,000, and sent to jail for 50 days for malicious mischief to destroying property in the house in which he committed the assault.

The sale of the California Pacific is believed by the best-informed circles to be an established fact. It is certain that the California Pacific has countermanded large orders for materials, and paid contractors for losses. Am satisfied the report of the sale is well founded.

Norcross fell flat this afternoon, dropping from 160 to 132½ in ten minutes. The reported rich strike is regarded as a canard, by many shrewd observers, started to bull the stock.

Hon. S. S. Cox, of New York, who arrived last night, will address the Democracy Saturday evening. The Friedlander and Casserly Democracy this evening failed to agree, though the regulars and citizens did. The Friedlanders will therefore adhere to their programme and hold primaries on Tuesday next.

Railroad rumors are the talk of the hour. The situation may be briefly summed up as follows: Everybody concedes that somebody has sold out. Nearly everybody is positive that the California Pacific has sold out to the Central Pacific. A few claim that not only is the above true, but that the Central Pacific has also sold out its own and the California Pacific's boats, road and franchise, to Scott and Cameron, representing the Pennsylvania Central. A railroad man who professes to know positively, insists that the latter is the case, and offered this morning to bet every cent he was worth on it.

Sudden Death at San Jose.

SAN JOSE, July 19.—An inquest was held on the body of a man who died suddenly at the Washington Hotel last night. It appears the man, a stranger, a Chilian or Spaniard, applied last evening at the hotel for a bed, which he obtained, and retired early after supper. Not making his appearance this morning his room was entered at eleven o'clock and he was found dead. A post mortem examination showed the cause of his death to have been disease of the heart. The body has not yet been identified.

Another Fire at Marysville.

MARYSVILLE, July 19.—Another fire broke out about half-past six this evening in the residence of E. Healy, corner of Eighth and D streets, which was totally destroyed. The furniture was all saved.

A frightful runaway accident occurred about the same time, resulting in the death of a Mexican teamster named Ramon Bates. His team took fright near the Oroville railroad, throwing the driver out in front across one of the tracks, where he hung, his head striking the ground. He was dragged for about half a mile, when the horses ran into a fence and stopped. The Mexican, when reached, was found dead, with his neck broken and skull crushed.

CURRENT NOTES.

The Dock Commissioners at New York have directed the Superintendent to furnish them the names of the workmen who, contrary to orders, absented themselves from work to take part in the riot, with a view to their discharge.

The London Times makes the New York riots the text for an article upon the condition of affairs in Ireland, which concludes as follows: "If Irish feuds are as implacable in America as they are in Ireland, and more sanguinary, Irishmen must ask themselves whether Irish nature is not more responsible for the troubles in Ireland than English misrule."

In reference to the statement that Gen. Thomas was passed over by General Sheridan when the latter was made Lieutenant General, Maj. Gen. Hartsuff, Adjutant General of the military division of Missouri, makes the following statement: When General Grant vacated the office of General and General Sherman succeeded him, the list of Major Generals in the order of rank was as follows: Halleck, Meade, Sheridan, Thomas and Hancock. Gen. Thomas was made a Brigadier General in the regular army before Gen. Sheridan, but when Gen. Sheridan was promoted to Major General for his distinguished services in the valley of the Shenandoah, ending with the battle of Cedar Creek, not a voice was raised against the justice and propriety of his promotion, which was accompanied by an autograph letter from President Lincoln, thanking him for his great services to the country. Subsequently, General Thomas, for his distinguished services at the battle of Nashville, was made Major General, taking his place next below General Sheridan. If, therefore, General Thomas had been made Lieut. General, it would have been General Sheridan, in addition to Generals Meade and Halleck, who would have been passed over.

THE HOLLY SYSTEM.

REPORT FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE HOLLY WORKS AT BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—THE WORKS A PERFECT SUCCESS BOTH FOR FIRE PROTECTION AND WATER SUPPLY—PERFECT SATISFACTION GIVEN.

The following important letter has been placed at our disposal for publication. It will be seen that the Holly Works at Binghamton give perfect satisfaction in every respect. This report from the Superintendent in charge there is a most valuable endorsement of the system. The more we see of the plan the better we are satisfied that it is the best method for us to employ to obtain good water. Let all our citizens read this letter:

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 8, 1871.

P. C. SCHUYLER, JR.:

Dear Sir—Your favor under date of June 12th came duly to hand, and in reply I would say that everything pertaining to our "Water Works" is performing just as successfully and satisfactorily as when first put in operation. We have increased the number of water takers to nearly two thousand, and, of course, have increased somewhat the expense of fuel, but on no other account. Our wells furnish ample supply of "pure and wholesome water," and for fire protection it is perfect, and no city of any magnitude can afford to be without it one day as a wonderful protection against fire.

We have about 15,000 within the city bounds. At this moment an alarm of fire is given. The first "fire hydrant" that can be reached is opened by some of the Firemen. The effect of this is to lower, instantly, the pressure on the main water pipes; this, within the short time of less than ten seconds, gives a fire signal at the engine or pumping house, calling the attention of the engineer by the "fire signal" to put up the pressure to the standard of 65 pounds to the square inch. Our ordinary pressure for domestic use is 30 pounds. The pressure for fire purposes is put up in less than fifteen seconds, and is as easily maintained at 100, 75 or 50 as at 30 pounds, and with the same uniformity. The moment the firemen are done and close the hydrant the fact is indicated at the same moment at the engine-house, and the ordinary pressure is resumed. Any service pipe that can be used is equal to four times the strength of the mains, and there has never been a complaint and is one of the last things to be thought of with us.

In fine, the system is perfect in all respects. I know this fact, that our Works were the first introduced with steam power, and that the Holly Manufacturing Co. have made a great improvement in the construction of their machinery, engines, pumps and boilers since our Works were established.

Should be pleased to give at any time any information that may be material as connected with our "Water Works."

Yours truly,
T. A. SEDGWICK,
Superintendent.

THE GREAT WORLD TONIC!

PLANTATION BITTERS.

This Wonderful Vegetable restorative is prepared from pure St. Croix Rum and Calisaya Bark, known the world over as possessing wonderful tonic properties. As a Tonic and Cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal.

PLANTATION BITTERS.

Just the thing for the morning lassitude and depression of spirits caused by late hours and what is called fashionable dissipation.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Of all the appetizers it is the most infallible, and the impulse which it imparts to the digestive functions soon puts Dyspepsia to flight.

PLANTATION BITTERS

It is the foremost remedy of the age. The specific of every species of debility, general or local, constitutional or casual.

PLANTATION BITTERS.

A wine glassful taken half an hour before breakfast, dinner or supper, quickens the flow of the gastric juice, and thereby provokes hunger.

PLANTATION BITTERS

"By its use I dispose of three good square meals per day, with a good relish, have no pains and have gained sixteen pounds in eight weeks; sleep well and consider myself a healthy man."

PLANTATION BITTERS

Taken moderately, three times a day, will give you strength, health and a cheerful and contented disposition.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Will give rest and quiet to those who cannot sleep, from unsatisfactory condition of their affairs.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Will restore tone and vigor—just the thing for mothers nursing.

PLANTATION BITTERS

"Well, they cured me of every distressing symptom in ten weeks and you had better follow my example."

PLANTATION BITTERS

If you want pure, rich and electrical blood—blood that gives tone to the system, the "rose tint of health" to the cheek.—Try it.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Thousands of families in Ohio and Mississippi valley, and on the border of the southern rivers and swamps, will not be without out.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Which is the cheapest? A dollar bottle of Plantation Bitters, or a physician at two dollars a visit?

PLANTATION BITTERS.

"The value of such an antidote cannot be expressed in words."

PLANTATION BITTERS

Will restore the vital energy, repair indigestion, and correct the sluggish circulation of the blood.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Is an unequalled invigorating cordial for the aged as well as for the young.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Is unsurpassed for weak and delicate persons, on their requiring a gentle stimulant.

PLANTATION BITTERS

"I began taking your Bitters the next day, and am perfectly happy to tell you that they have completely restored my health, strength and cheerfulness."

PLANTATION BITTERS

"I find nothing so good for headache and languor to which my daughters are at times subject. It gives them splendid appetite, and they eat like pigs."

PLANTATION BITTERS

"By advice of my physician, soon after my baby was born, I commenced taking them, and they have done me so much good."

PLANTATION BITTERS

Are sold everywhere.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 20, 1871.

CITY.

A Better Street Era, We Hope.—Mr. Marshall, the new Street Commissioner, has undertaken his duties with a spirit and zeal which promises a better state of things than has prevailed the last few years. He intends to have clean streets, and we bid him good-speed in the effort. We rather calculate, however, that he will have an up-hill time for a few months—merchants, dray companies, livery stables, shops, etc., have so long had the undisputed use of streets and sidewalks that they have come almost to look upon such occupation as an established right, and we presume they will not correct their bad habits without a long and persistent application of the authority which the law gives the Street Commissioner. But, however difficult the Commissioner may find the task of reclaiming the streets for legitimate street uses, and however angry the habitual trespassers may be at first, he will at least earn and receive the thanks of everybody, if he succeeds. There is every possible reason in favor of clean streets, and we hope the Commissioner has got the grit and persistence necessary to reclaim them.

Passengers for Oregon.—The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship John L. Stephens sailed from San Francisco yesterday, for Portland, with the subjoined list of passengers: Gen Alexander and wife, Mrs Bolton, Miss S B Smith, L H Wakefield and wife, P J L Hardenburgh and wife, W J McConnell, A M Simpson, G McClelland, A Chavier, M D [illegible], J Edwards, G J Ainsworth, Lieut [illegible], M Wolf, R S Perkins, J H Hagan and wife, W Clark, Mrs M S Vincent, Miss A A Light, Miss Carlisle, Mrs F Mountain and daughter, T J Mountain, J W Roper, J H Shannon and family, Mrs Kneedler and five children, Mrs C Aby, Mrs S M Dean, Rev J L Daly, M Carey and wife, Mrs W Caste, J Layton, J N Turpin, Mrs M Flynn and child, Mrs M R Hadley, Miss M Sanford, C S Shotwell, M Fitzgerald, William Corrigan, G C Lewis, H A Sears, J Dow, J H Woods, C Addis, Mrs S J Hakes, Mrs Mary Smith, Mrs W H Coburn, J A Magrum and lady, Dr J B Pilkington.

Between Two Fires.—It strikes us that if our city real estate agents were at all tender-toed, they would be now enjoying a delightful state of [illegible] between the attacks of the newspapers of the Wallamet valley and Washington Territory. Just only two or three days since we read in a W. T. paper grave charges against our real estate men to the effect that they were guilty of attempts to discourage new comers from going to Washington Territory to look for farms and homes. Now we have the Real Estate Special of [illegible] charging them with "sending parties who are seeking homes off over into Washington Territory." We should really feel sorry for our real estate agents, only we happen to know they don't care a cent for such attacks, and that they would sell a farm in the Wallamet valley as "quick as wink," if they got a chance, or in Washington Territory "quick as flash" under the same circumstances.

Boat House.—We are told, just once more, that the boat club is preparing for a regatta; that preparations are nearly complete; that the members are enthusiastic; that a liberal member presented the other members with a handsome new flag; that the Webfoot will carry for bow flag the Star Spangled Banner, and for the stern a banner of silk with a white field and her name in red letters; that the Neptune will have [illegible] in red, crossed on a white field, for the bow, and will carry a flag similar to the former at the stern, etc. Now, if, after all this, the boat club don't have that regatta, we shall be compelled to look upon the failure as a public and [illegible] grievance, and to appeal to public sentiment to bestow its frown either upon the club or [illegible] ninthly and tenthly announcements about approaching regatta.

Benevolent Incorporation.—Articles of incorporation were filed two or three days ago by W. [illegible], T. L. Eliot, J. C. Ainsworth, D. C. Lewis and H. Failing, for a benevolent association to be called "The Home." The articles provide that the object and business of the association shall be the exercising of benevolence and charity, the relief of distressed and needy persons, and the providing of homes for the destitute. The estimated value of the property is [illegible]; the Trustees are to be five in number, to reside in Multnomah county, and to be elected [illegible]; the officers are to be a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and the Home is to be located and to remain at Portland.

Gold Bearing Quartz.—Mr. Jos. Knott who has just returned from the Bohemian mines, brought with him a specimen of gold-bearing quartz taken from the lode upon which his claim is located and upon the rock of which his mill will work. The specimen is quite similar to those very rich and handsome ones which, a few years ago, set everybody crazy about the Santiam mines, except that there seems to be more solid [illegible] of gold set in the quartz. There is the same thread and ribbon gold sticking to the surface as in the Santiam specimens. Mr. Knott says that the mill will be set up and in readiness to work in about two or three weeks.

Addie Besse.—Captain Besse, who became identified with Oregon interests before leaving here last year, after disposing of the ship Hattie Besse to Captain Holman and Messrs. Abernethy, [illegible] vessel, the Addie Besse, which is now at Newport, England, loading with railroad iron for Oregon railroads. This makes the sixth vessel for Portland from Newport this season thus far.

The Smoky Season.—Smoke in considerable quantity was blown upon the valley yesterday, indicating a fire in the woods somewhere below. Unless there should be a smart shower of rain soon, we may calculate that the annual smoky season has set in.

For San Francisco.—The bark Edward James with part of a cargo will leave on Friday morning for Astoria, where she will take on board [illegible] feet of lumber and then proceed to San Francisco.

Quick Through Mails.—Mails from Sacramento to Portland now come through in four days and six hours.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

We notice that several new buildings have been started within a few days in Holladay's Addition.

A sprinkling cart has been started on the Macadamized road. There ought to be one or two in the city.

The river has fallen low enough to uncover the lower floor of the O. S. N. Co's dock.

The new wing of the Insane Asylum, 48 by 94 feet and two stories high, is now ready for use.

The Water street bridge, East Portland, is to be [illegible] immediately.

There are now only four prisoners remaining in the county jail.

Some necessary repairs to the Nicolson pavement on Front street were begun yesterday.

There was almost a fire at the North Portland sawmill yesterday, though no alarm was given.

ARRIVAL OF THE ORIFLAMME.

The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship Oriflamme, R. S. Hyde, Commander, arrived at half past nine o'clock last evening, from San Francisco, July [illegible].

MEMORANDA.

Sailed from San Francisco July 14th at 11:07 A. M.; crossed Columbia river bar the 19th at 4:40 A. M.; arrived at Astoria at 8 A. M., and left at 9:40 A. M. Arrived at Portland at 9:30 P. M. Experienced strong head winds and seas the entire passage.

Midsummer Maladies.

The hot solar rays that ripen the harvests generate many distressing diseases. If the liver be at all predisposed to irregularities, this is the season in which bilious attacks may be anticipated. A weak stomach, too, is weakest in the summer months, and the loss of vitality through the pores by excessive perspiration is so great, that a wholesome tonic, combining also the properties of a diffusive stimulant, is in many cases necessary to health, and under no circumstances should be dispensed with by the sickly and debilitated. Of all the preparations intended thus to refresh, sustain and fortify the human frame there is none that will compare with Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. They have been weighed in the balance of experience and not found wanting, having been recommended from the first as a great medicinal specific, not as a beverage, and in spite of interested opposition from innumerable quarters, stand, after a twenty years' trial, at the head of all proprietary medicines intended for the prevention and cure of all ordinary complaints of the stomach, the liver, the bowels and the nerves. In the unhealthy districts bordering the great rivers of the South and West, Hostetter's Bitters may be classed as the standard one for every species of intermittent or remittent fever. The people who inhabit those districts, place the most implicit confidence in the preparation—a confidence that is increased every year by the results of its operation.

As bitters, so called, of the most pernicious character, are springing up like fungi on every side, the public is hereby forewarned against the dram-shop frauds. Ask for Hostetter's Bitters, see that the label, etc., are correct, and remember that the genuine article is never sold in bulk, but in bottles only.

Value of Scientific Citizens.

[From the Olympia Tribune.]

At the Dalles, Oregon, resides a quiet Congregational clergyman, named Condon. This gentleman faithfully discharges his pastoral duties to the satisfaction of his little flock; and if his work ended there, there would be no occasion for this article. But the minister has a taste for geological studies, and his hours of recreation are given to them. He has devoted many toilsome days to unearthing the historic rocks of the hills and valleys around his home, and has collected a large and valuable cabinet of fossils. In the last two years he has given several lectures on these precious relics of a former period, one of which, entitled "The Three Stone Heads," was reported by a Portland paper, and was extensively copied in the Eastern press. Last year, Professor Marsh of Yale College, accompanied by a corps of young scientists, made a tour among the Rocky Mountains, occupying several months, and obtained a large collection of remarkable fossils, throwing much light on the nature of the animals and plants that occupied that portion of our country in a remote era.

This eminent savant, hearing of Mr. Condon through some of the published accounts of his discoveries and lectures, opened a correspondence with him, and its result is indicated in the following, which we clip from an exchange:

"Prof. Marsh, of Yale College, accompanied by his corps of young men, who will aid him in his scientific explorations near Fort Wallace and in Walla Walla valley, Oregon, is in San Francisco. The party is in excellent health and spirits."

This corps is provided with every aid that science demands and money can procure to make their explorations successful. It will carefully examine the country, collect vast quantities of valuable specimens, classify and arrange them systematically in the cabinets of Yale College, and publish the lessons they teach for the information of the world.

In the party are botanists, mineralogists, and other specialists, who, while their comrades are hunting for skeletons of those immense animals with unpronounceable names that once roamed the Oregon forests, will devote themselves to investigations in their own peculiar departments. Thus this solitary but earnest traveler in the paths of science has led to Oregon a corps of efficient men whose researches will be of infinite benefit to the State, which will enjoy all the advantages of their labors without any loss to itself.

"Ungrateful France."

WHAT PRINCE BISMARCK THOUGHT OF THE REVOLUTION OF SEDAN.

In an expose of the motives that actuated Bazaine in his passive defense and ultimate surrender of Metz, published by the Journal des Debats, the author—an officer in the Army of the Rhine—gives the following account of what occurred at the interview between Gen. Boyer and Prince Bismarck, when the former was sent by Marshal Bazaine to Versailles with a "mission" to the Prussian Chancellor:

"The General introduced to Prince Bismarck, after a few formal remarks, asked him what were his aims and objects, in a word, what he desired as the result of the war. To this M. de Bismarck replied very frankly that his policy was most simple; that the French might do as they please; that as for themselves, (the Germans,) they were sure of Paris, its fall being merely a question of time. The French took Rome without injuring its monuments; the Germans will do the same with Paris, which is a city of art in which nothing shall be destroyed. I have nothing to say to the various considerations that you lay before me. You tell me that your Metz army is the sole element of order remaining in France, and that it is alone capable of establishing and upholding a Goverment in the country. If this is the case, constitute this Government; we will offer no opposition, and we will even render you some assistance. The Marshal will repair to some town to be named with his army, and summon the Empress thither. In our eyes the sole legal Government of the country is still that of the plebiscitum of the 8th of May; is the only one we recognize. You speak to me of the necessity of putting an end to a war such as this one; but who am I to treat with? There is no Chamber. I had proposed to let the elections be held on the 2d of October; the departments occupied by the Prussian troops would have had full liberty in the selection of their deputies. This offer was not taken advantage of. I then suggested the date of the 18th of October with no better success. We then learned that Prince Bismarck, entering into another train of ideas, pronounced the following sentence with no little warmth: 'I cannot say what will befall France, nor what is the future that awaits her; but I do know this, that it will redound to her shame, to her eternal shame in all time, in all ages, and in all tongues, to have abandoned her Emperor as she did after Sedan. The stain which she will never wash out is the revolution of the 4th of September.' Finally, returning to what was peculiarly the object of the interview, the Chancellor repeated that he would offer no opposition to the reconstitution of a Government by Marshal Bazine and his army."

Statement of Gen. N. B. Forrest—Senator Brownlow Replies.

Senator Brownlow has published a caustic and crushing reply to Fort Pillow Forrest's testimony before the Congressional Ku Klux Committee. We extract the following paragraphs:

Gen. Forrest was for hours before the committee. He said if Ku Klux had ever existed in Tennessee it was on account of Brownlow's proclamation of 1867, saying to the militia they would not be molested for outrages upon and punishment of rebels; and because of the apprehension of injury to persons and property, as many negroes had left their homes and were prowling through the country with arms in their hands; that certainly no such organization has existed in Tennessee since 1868, and that the people are as law-abiding and deprecate disturbances as much as those living North."

On account of the operations of the Ku Klux Klan it is well known throughout Tennessee that I called the militia into the field, and called them under a special act of the Legislature. As to their existence as an organization, we had the testimony of this same Forrest, who stated publicly that there were 40,000 organized and well equipped Ku Klux in Tennessee. This he gave to the world through the newspapers, and now shamefully seeks to make the impression that no such organization is extant.

There is a principle in municipal law that the suppression of truth is equivalent to the expression of falsehood. Hence, in regard to my militia and my proclamation calling them out, Forrest's statement is false by suppression, false by denial, and false by misrepresentation. The Ku Klux Klan were in existence in Tennessee as early as 1862, when this man Forrest commanded a brigade of them, and led them to victory in the cowardly and infamous butchery of Fort Pillow.

A NEW STONE SAW.—While great improvements has been made in saws for timber, there has been no change in the old way for sawing marble. It is a very slow process, that American ingenuity may reasonably be expected to improve. Mr. Emerson, the original practical inventor of the movable saw teeth, now so successful in lumber, has conceived the idea of applying this principle to sawing stone. We cut and saw iron and steel as quickly as wood; why not stone? It is found that steel made from chrome iron makes a cutting tool nearly equal to a carbon point, and but little inferior to a black diamond. It cuts marble without chopping the edge, and it works well in a circular saw, cutting its way, not so fast as in wood, but still very cheaply. The teeth are so formed as to have cutting edges fore and aft, and they are reversed in three minutes when dulled at one end. They are firmly held in the blade by an ingenious device. The factory is at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, but we may claim it as a California invention, Emerson being from our State. We have fine marble in this State, which we trust cheap stone sawing will bring into market, besides granites, slates and building sandstones.—Alta.

A Good Story well Applied.

We don't think a better thing has recently been got off than the following, which is taken from the Washington correspondence of the New York Standard:

The general acceptance of the "New Departure" by the Democracy, shows to what straits that party is reduced. I overheard a conversation in the Post Office Department a few days since, between a convert to the new departure and an old liner still clinging to his idols which clearly illustrates the position. The old liner was fierce in his denunciations of the new religion, characterizing it in language more forcible than polite, when the convert laying a hand on his friend's shoulder, said, "Let me tell you a story which I think illustrates our position as a party." A young man ambitious of literary renown, wished to write an essay upon the habits of the beaver. For the purpose of gleaning some information upon the subject, he went to an old trapper of whom he had heard, and asked him to give him some of his experience or knowledge of the habits of the animal in question. "Well, stranger," said the trapper, "I can tell you a story about my dog and a beaver—that will be worth something I reckon. My dog got after one of them animals once, and they had a devil of a time to see which would beat; the beaver ran into the water; the dog followed him onto a log, over it, under it, the dog gaining all the time on the beaver. At last the beaver made for the bank, the dog in hot pursuit. Seeing no way for escape from the dog, who was pressing him closely, the beaver ran up a tree." "Ran up a tree!" exclaimed the aspirant for literary fame, "the beaver is webfooted and can't climb a tree." "Generally not," replied the trapper, "but, stranger, don't you see the beaver was obleeged to climb that tree, for my dog was a crowdin' of him." "My friend," continued the convert, "we are obleeged to have a new departure, for the Republican party is a crowdin' of us."

A radical Democrat of Yolo county, California, proposes to stump the State in behalf of the Republican ticket. His reason for so doing consists in the fact that taxes in Yolo county have more than trebled under Democratic rule over what they were under Republican administration. Being a man of property, he feels the imposition, and is not disposed to submit to it.
